Said In Cypress

That we can condense our remarks this week into a column of personalities, if our reader(s) would like a change.

WARD HUBER, born in Sioux City, Iowa, across the Missouri river from us. Married to an English girl, their baby suffered dystentary when the Queen Mary made the crossing at the time so many infants died. The family lives in Cypress Manor on Walker.

MARY LOUISE RATLIFF, whom we have respected distantly for some time, because of her many accomplishments. Tuesday she was digging post holes. Wednesday you'd probably not recognize her, as social and wedding counsellor for an affair to take place in Hollywood in September. She must advise on all points of ettiquette, design the gowns, and handle the publicity. That's what we call real versatility. Don't let the digging post holes fool you. She's just as gracious at that task as she is in her capacity as counsellor.

SAM MILLER, who has lived in Cypress lo, these many years, at the corner of Lincoln and Watson. And just this week he told our mother when he came into the office to renew his subscription, that their well ran dry. It has been necessary to go deeper and deeper, down through the years.

MRS. JAMES DUNCAN, who has lived in Cypress 15 years and watched Walker street south of Orange avenue get busier and busier. Three of the family's dogs have been hit by speeding cars and this week their well went dry.

MRS. DICK HATHCOCK, who can remember only the accusing look in her dog's 16½ year old eyes as the family packed into the car and left on their vacation two weeks ago. Because, when she returned home, the faithful pet had grieved itself to death.

CARL MARKEL, who has a novel way of making his wife weed the yard, even if he does deny that he had anything to do with it. The other day she was walking through the weeds and she spotted a dollar bill under one. In just a few hours, she had pulled every weed in the place — but no more dollar bills — only a cleaner yard.

DR. BASIL MILLER, because he isn't Arnold Holborow at all. It seems so strange that the only two men in Cypress to appear habitually in sailing caps, bear such a strong resmblance. We'll tell you a startling secret. Even his little twin granddaughters, the Howard girls, confuse Dr. Miller with Arnold. Now will you believe us!

JERRY SHIPKEY, because we talked to him for several minutes Wednesday before we realized he was THE Jerry Shipkey, idol of our UCLA football team rooting days. It was the butch haircut and the neck muscles which convinced us. We screamed and "rah rahed" the team through two season tickets' worth, and Jerry got plenty of our applause.

The local ICE MAN. He heard us kidding in the drug store the other day about passe cliches, and wanted to know to what journalism school we went. We had to admit to none, but he attended in Whichita, Kansas. Had the full treatment, too. It only "took" on him for two years, he says.

MRS. ALICE THOMAS, from Hollywood. During the first world war she was a pen pal of Betty Sander's father, Mr. Davis. They corresponded, exchanged gifts, and she did all the nice things that girls do for men in the service overseas. Through the years they have kept in touch as only major events occurred. Tuesday they met again, as Davis is visiting here from Rapid City, South Dakota. "Sandy" was responsible, you might know. But a happy reunion was enjoyed as the friends reminisced.

JOHN and MICKEY THOMAS who only came to the firemen's dance last Saturday evening to sit on the sidelines and be good community sports. That's what they said Saturday afternoon. If there was another couple had more fun, we'll put in with you.

FRANK and NELLIE NOE, who really could schottische.

MRS. THOMAS and DALE trying to schottische. It was a scream.

HORACE and PAT doing the Mexican shuffle. It was screamier.

Mrs. Fred Hutchings and daughter, Mrs. Charles Knauss, were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Frances Hirt in Hollywood Thursday evening.

ANOTHER OLD TIMER—

Tells Of Early History Of Cypress In 1800's

Ed. Note — Mrs. Williams' interview this week was with Mrs. John Prescott, an early Cypress pioneer. This is the fourth of a series.

"I guess you would call us old timers," Mrs. Prescott began after she was asked how long she had been a resident of Cypress.

"We came here February 1, 1894, from Azusa. My husband hauled all the lumber to build our house down from there in a team and wagon. You could see for miles around and there was nothing to break the view. On rainy nights when there was a lull in the storm, you could hear the combers breaking on the shore at Seal Beach just as plain.

Hardly Any Roads

"There was hardly anything you could call a road from what is now Miller road on toward Anaheim. Occasionally someone would pass that way. I remember we used to take a team of horses and a wagon and drive over south of Artesia on the river and cut willow wood for fuel.

"The road was so sandy and bad that we would have to begin to throw the wood out on the way back so the horses could pull the wagon. We kept throwing it out wherever the horses had a hard time pulling through the sand until we got home.

After unloading what was left, we would go back and pick up what we had thrown out. It was the same way in hauling potatoes to Buena Park and Norwalk to be shipped.

"We traded with the Whitaker brothers in Buena Park and twice a week a man would come to deliver groceries and take orders for the next time.

"We made pretty good farming potatoes until about 1906 when we went into the citrus nursery business. We sold our trees all over the valley. Thousands were sold in Garden Grove and Anaheim. We selected good stock and planted our home place to both navels and valencias. We had no trouble selling them from a roadside stand.

"No one could have made me believe 55 years ago that those little ruts in the road would ever become a fine highway with cars and trucks whizzing by and making such a din you can't be heard on the back porch.

Scout meetings have been conducted as usual under the temporary set-up which has Charles W. Biggs acting as scoutmaster and John Sutphin as assistant. This arrangement, however, is only temporary, pending interest of boys and parents in retaining a charter in Cypress. Any interested parent or qualified leader should contact either of these two volunteers.

SUMMER PICNIC FOR FORMER HAWKEYES SET FOR AUGUST

Singing, "Iowa, Where The Tall Corn Grows", thousands of Hawkeyes from all parts of central and southern California are expected to gather Saturday, Aug. 6 for their annual summer picnic in Lincoln Park, Los Angeles.

Because so many were disappointed by rain at the Golden Anniversary gathering last Feb. 26, it has been decided to repeat much of the program, according to Dr. Glenn J. Greenwood, president of the Iowa Association of Southern California.

Principal speaker will be Virgil Pinkley, publisher of the Los Angeles Mirror, and formerly vice president of United Press European section. His address will be a graphic description of events overseas, much of it from a personal observation.

Report from a busy, prosperous Iowa is expected from President Tom E. Shearer of Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa, a special guest on the program.

More than 400,000 natives of Iowa now reside in California, Dr. Greenwood pointed out. As many as 125,000 have taxed facilities of the largest city parks in past years.

Games This Week For Local Teams

Coast Grain of Norwalk will furnish the opposition for second - place Cypress Merchants tonight at 8 on the Norwalk diamond.

In an unofficial meeting last week, the Merchants knocked the Coast Grain outfit off 9 to 6.

Devilettes Play Two

The Devilettes travel to El Modina tonight where they will tangle with the Tom Boys. Tuesday night, Olive will come to Cypress to meet the local girls on the Elementary school diamond at 7:30.

In previous games, the Tom Boys have taken two from the Devilettes, while the locals have failed to win. In the Olive - Cypress series, each team has won one.

Merchants Drop Second Game In 21 Contests

On one of those nights when everyone was adept at making errors instead of hits, the Cypress Merchants dropped their second game in 21 tilts last week to the All-American Market of Downey, 11 to 6.

Downey capitalized on some Cypress miscues in the first inning to gain a lead over the Merchants, and never fell behind for the rest of the game.

That loss puts the Merchants out of the lead of the NSA league for the second round of play. Some other team will have to hand a loss to Downey before the local team can get back into first place.

The only other loss the Merchants have suffered was a non-league game with Coast Grain the second contest of the season.

GULMAN, WRIGHT RANK IN N.S.A. BAT

Latest dope from NSA headquarters in Norwalk, rank both Gulman and Wright of the Cypress Merchants as tied for third in the NSA loop play.

Rex Roberts, Coast Grain, .555 and Mullens, All-American, .530, are in the lead. Gulman and Wright have .333 averages.

Only batters with 16 or more at-bats are listed.

LONG BEACH TEAM SUFFERS 16 TO 4

The Merchants bounced back from their defeat last week to beat Galiher and Shearer, a Long Beach outfit, 16 to 4 on the Cypress diamond Wednesday night.

Cypress let the visitors score one run in the first inning, then proceeded to build up a lead for themselves. At the end of the second, Cypress lead 4 to 1, then counted three scores for a 7-1 lead at the close of the fourth. A four - run barrage in the fifth made it 11-1 and five more in the eighth closed the game at 16 to 4.

Four Home Runs

Home runs were the order of the day. Jim Wright began the parade by plastering one out in the first, while both "Lanky" Boekler and Kaufman collected round-trippers in the fourth.

Next on the list was Gulman, who connected in the eighth, bringing in two runs ahead of him.

Jim Wright hit four for five (by his own count) and won 25c worth of root beers from team mate Salty Falls.

STANTON LIONS TO PRESENT COMEDY

Stanton Lions Club, with the assistance of Miss Joan V. Buethe, professional dramatist, are arranging to gather a cast of more than 100 talented people from their community to be cast in the noted comedy "Laff it Off."

Members of the Lions club are promoting the entertainment to further their fund for a community center building.

From the evidence of talent uncovered to date, this show will be the biggest and best amateur entertainment ever presented in this section of Orange county, according to Herbert Howard, president of the Stanton Lions.

He said that the proposed building will fill a vital community need. The lot is already owned by the Lions club, he said. Stanton, at present, has no building suitable for a public gathering.

Breakfast Club Disbands Until Vacation Ends

An experiment was tried at the second meeting of the Breakfast club this year.

Since the meeting was publicized in three newspapers, it was felt by President Frank Noe that sufficient notice had been given and that if businessmen were interested, they would attend Tuesday morning's meeting without a personal invitation.

The attendance was small enough to warrant a motion to cease the club meetings and postpone the election of officers until the first Tuesday after school starts in September.

Appoints Member In Auxiliary To Aid Teen-Canteen

Because the Auxiliary to Post No. 9847 of the Cypress VFW is interested in the problems of the high-teen group of the local teen-canteen, Jean Kreissler, president, appointed Della Priddy to investigate for the group and offer assistance if needed.

Two new members were initiated at the regular meeting of the organization held Monday evening, and welcomed into membership. They were Mrs. Guy Irvin and Mrs. Carl Harvey.

Mrs. J. E. Smith will be hostess to the sewing club of the auxiliary when it meets on July 25 to make hospital soakers.

Mrs. Kreissler says that more Camay wrappers and Ivory and Duz package tops can be used. If convenient, local housewives may leave these at the Enterprise office and they will be delivered to the auxiliary.

An invitation has been received by the group to tour the new modern mortuary in Alhambra which employs VFW member Ernest Mitchell. When sponsored under the auspices of an organization, a sum of 50c is paid for each visitor.

Final arrangements were made for the potluck dinner on Wednesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dye in the form of a farewell as they leave for Seattle where they will make their future home.

ELLSWORTHS OPEN NEW CAFE HERE

To be known as the R & H cafe, the building owned by Mrs. Madge Lyen on Lincoln avenue west of town, has been remodeled to include a large room about 46 feet in length.

Ralph R. Ellsworth and his son, Harvey E., have installed a lunch counter, shuffleboard, and juke box. The cafe will be open from nine a.m. until two a.m.

The proprietors have employed Val Gaffey, who began work this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dye left today for Seattle, Washington, where he is stationed in the coast guard.

BIRTHDAY UNUSUAL FOR 3 - YEAR - OLD

A freak accident sent the young son of the Sidney L. Christophers, 5702 Vonnie Lane, to the hospital in Anaheim. Some how or other the car door flew open and Gary was thrown to the pavement.

His biggest worry was whether or not he would still have his "birfday," on Tuesday. He was three years old.

Gary was released from the hospital after a period of observation on Tuesday.

B. GOADE'S STRANGE PET

"Home" to Wilbur, a white rat, is the glove compartment of Bruce Goade's automobile. The pet is allowed the freedom of the car to roam as he pleases, and returns this favor to his master by being meticulous in his habits and little or no trouble. If Goade finds a particularly toothsome morsel, such as a piece of fine cheese for his friend, he has only to purse his lips and call in the same manner as one would call a dog, and "Wilbur" immediately appears to see what is wanted.

Rat and man have been friends for 3½ months now. If the inside gets too dull, the rodent ventures out onto the hood of the car, being careful not to slide down the fenders, and thus encounter unknown dangers.

Perhaps to call an offender in human society "a rat," is not so uncomplimentary, after all?

CARRIER BOYS FOR DAILY WIN TRIP

Three paper carrier boys in Cypress were rewarded by Press Telegram last Sunday with special tours of interest for their efforts in a recent contest to gain new readers.

The number of new "starts" counted so many points, as well as letters received in the circulation office from subscribers which recommended the boy in any way.

The boys traveled by bus on the tours to a large-size city a distance from Long Beach, and visited historic missions en route.

Boys from Cypress who were honored were Billy Schmit, Tom Dyer and Kenneth Ogle.

NEW FENCE SOON FOR SCHOOL YARD

Front area of the school grounds was filled in with dirt this week to the west boundary of the property, for the purpose of making erection possible of a new fence and the removal of the old fence.

The dirt was delivered and Jim Coburn manned the county equipment and leveled off the ground according to graded stakes placed by the county engineer's office in Santa Ana. A ten foot ditch was left for drainage purposes, and the rest of the land was built up.

Bids will be accepted at one o'clock Saturday for the installation of a fence to inclose the new school grounds.

THE TRAFFIC LIGHTS

May Not Blink

Don't always depend upon the traffic lights swinging at the Pacific Electric crossings on Walker and Lincoln avenues.

Careful observers have noted the fact that the lights only swing when the engine hits the crossing. If there are cars on behind, the light will stop swinging while the train is still crossing the highway.

Summer Fair Will Be Held In Buena Park Next Week

Merry - go - round music, concessions, and merchandise displays featuring the latest developments in automobiles and household appliances will be in evidence at the Summer Community Fair to be held at the corner of Commonwealth and Grand avenues next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Ritter's United Shows has been secured to furnish the professional end of the Fair, and they will have kiddie rides, a merry-go-round and a chair swing. Ritter's will set up on Wednesday and operate through Sunday.

Buena Park merchants will display their wares in booths along the edge of the grounds and automobile dealers from Fullerton, Anaheim and Santa Ana have also been contacted for displays.

Church and civic organizations will have food stands and game concessions. An estimated 15,000 people are expected to go through the exhibits in the three days.

Broadway Hit "The Heiress" at Holiday Stage

Holiday Stage, veteran Tustin strawhatter, is presenting during the week of July 18th the successful Broadway hit, "The Heiress", with an all-star cast, headed by Donald Randolph, Oliver Cliff, Mary Finney, and beautiful newcomer to Orange County audiences, Miss Trescott Ripley.

Miss Ripley has experienced an "obscurity-to-fame" dramatic career. After pounding the pavements of New York, Trescott got her break in television, radio and stage, and upon completing "The Heiress", she is headed for the road in a country-wide tour of "The Detective Story", top Broadway show of last season.

As Catherine in "The Heiress", Miss Ripley portrays a role that is a challenge to her skill. Catherine, the unhappy daughter of a wealthy doctor, is the part created by Wendy Hiller on the New York stage.

E. Alyn Warren has directed the show in his consistently superb style. With Donald Randolph as the doctor, Mary Finney as the Aunt, and Oliver Cliff as the suitor, "The Heiress" promises to be a top-rate theatrical piece.

SARTWELL'S HOST RICHMOND FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sartwell planned several delightful occasions to entertain Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Davis, "D D" and Bobby when they visited here this last week. Davis is dean of boys at Richmond high school. The family also visited in the home of Mrs. Sartwell's other son, the H. F. Davis' on Crescent.

On Sunday a large group of relatives met for a picnic in Bixby park in Long Beach.

The family returned to their northern home on Tuesday.

Los Alamiton Dies After Illness

Mrs. Edith Strader, 62, resident of Los Alamitos for seven years, died Tuesday night at Orange county hospital following an operation.

She is survived by her husband, Raleigh B. Strader, Sr., of Los Alamitos; daughters, Mrs. Fred De Camp of Buena Park and Mrs. Ruth Savage of Oklahoma City; sons, Raleigh Jr., of Mead, Kansas, Fred M., Leonard of Piru, California, George of Oklahoma City, and John Woodmansee; and mother, Mrs. Letty Wails, 90-year-old, of Oklahoma City. Hollis Woodmansee of Cypress, is an uncle of John Woodmansee.

Funeral services will be conducted next week. The body is resting at the White Funeral home in Bellflower.

MONEY IS VOTED BY THREE GROUPS TO STUDY P E

Sponsor New Cypress Kiwanis

A committee appointed recently by the Buena Park Kiwanis club to investigate the possibility of sponsoring a new club in Cypress reported favorably on the project at the local club meeting Tuesday evening.

Serving on the committee were Harold Grove, L. M. Renaker, and Franklin Sullivan who stated in their report that the necessary minimum number of members were available. Club president Frank Noe, himself from Cypress secured the consent of the board of directors for a petition to be circulated to obtain the signatures of approximately twenty-five prospective members before application is made for a charter. At present Cypress has no service club.

Speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting was A. J. McCracken, executive secretary of the California Pharmaceutical Association, who was introduced by Charles Holiday. The speaker's subject was "Citizenship," and was highly instructive. McCracken conducted a short school, asking his listeners such questions as, "how many Senators represent California?" and "how much is a state assemblyman paid?"

He told the number of bills introduced in each branch of the state legislature and traced the processes through which they go before reaching the governor's desk.

The speaker sounded a warning note when he pointed out an increasing tendency of the judicial branch to exceed its constitutional functions, thus throwing the national government processes out of balance.

Guests from Cypress at the meeting were Earl Essex, James Moss, Ed Robinson, Foster Noe, J. D. Anderson, George Henry, and Dale Kroesen.

Friends of Dyes Give Potluck

Friends and fellow VFW and Auxiliary members of Ray and Margaret Dye were present at a potluck dinner Wednesday evening which was in the form of a farewell to the couple who will make their home in Seattle.

Feature of the dessert period were two cakes, one to honor Mrs. Dye whose birthday anniversary was celebrated that day, and one to recognize the eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Luty, who came from their new home in Long Beach for the occasion.

Lilue Mihe Irvin, whose mother is a new member of the Auxiliary pleased the group with several songs and dances in her own inimitable style.

Out-of-town guests were Billye Giles, second district president, and Glennie Goddard, both of Riverside.

Surprising their host couple, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutchings last Sunday were former friends from Barons, Alberta, Canada. Now residents of Riverside, Mr. and Mrs. "Gerry" McCarroll and son, Howard, renewed a friendship of many years' standing. It has been fifteen years since the two families were in touch with one another and the reunion was greatly enjoyed.

Several interested chamber of commerce members attended the meeting in Garden Grove Monday night to hear a discussion opposing the Pacific Electric's plan to abandon passenger service on the Los Angeles - Santa Ana line. The meeting at the Imperial cafe was called by the committee of the Associated Chambers of Orange county appointed to study the problem, headed by George W. Phillips, of Tustin, chairman of the group.

It was voted that the executive board of the Associated chambers be requested to write letters commending the cities of Lynwood, Santa Ana, and the board of supervisors of Orange county, each of which has appropriated $500 to be spent in acquiring the services of an expert to prepare protests and present them to the public utilities commission. Cecil E. Dunn, professor in Occidental college, who heads a firm of transportation experts has been commissioned to conduct this important survey.

Only dissenting voice was that of Clint Cary, Santa Ana restaurant owner, who has been named by PE officials as their representative in hearings locally.

Present from Cypress were James Broadbelt and Robert Hoyt who represent the local chamber on the county committee, and E. E. Goodman, Price Seibert, Dale Kroesen and Beth Kroesen.

WATERMELON FEED FOR CHURCH GROUP

Men and women of the Church of the Nazarene Adult Bible class met Tuesday evening for a study meeting and social gathering. There were 16 members present.

Watermelon, furnished by the men, was enjoyed at the close of the evening.

CHURCH WOMEN VISIT MISSIONARY HOME

A visit to Casa Robles, home in Temple City for retired missionaries of the Church of the Nazarene, was enjoyed Tuesday by the two chapters of the Women's foreign missionary society, junior and senior groups.

A noon picnic was enjoyed under a huge spreading tree to the rear of the grounds, where several tables are placed for this purpose.

The afternoon was spent in listening to fascinating stories told by the former missionaries of their experiences.

A gift of fruit was left by the visitors as they departed for the journey home.

"TWIN SUNDAY" AT NAZARENE CHURCH

Sunday will be "twin" Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene. The twin daughters of the Reverend and Mrs. W. D. Howard will be six months old this week, and the novel idea is to spark inbeing carried on at the present terest in an attendance contest time.

Of the three teams, the reds, whites and blues, the latter is leading by only 7 points, the contest is so close.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Luty and two children have moved from 5621 Camp street to 5281 Orange avenue in Long Beach, in order that the former may be closer to his work.

ANOTHER "RACKET" EXPOSED

And now another warning to residents that a magazine racket misusing the good name of Boys Town is being carried on in various communities throughout the United States.

A communication from the director of Father Flanagan's Boys' home in Boys Town, Nebraska, asks that readers be warned to beware of any magazine solicitors identifying themselves as having any connection whatsoever with Boys Town. Father Nicholas H. Wegner calls it a "vicious magazine racket" and says they have no authorized representatives selling book or magazine subscriptions, and that none of their boys are permitted to do so and there are no arrangements with any solicitors whereby a portion of commissions are turned over to Boys Town.

It is against such malicious misrepresentations as this that your business men's group has set up a system whereby a solicitor in Cypress must first ask for a card of approval before he can visit door to door. Naturally, such a peddler as the kind noted above would never attempt to apply through the organization because his request would not stand close scrutiny.

Rackets such as the one referred to here make it difficult for legitimate salesmen who represent recognized products. If householders would cooperate in this effort, by asking to see the business men's association "card of approval," a good deal of embarrassment could be saved all the way around.

"THEY DON'T ANSWER"

In Soviet Russia, a diplomat's life is not a happy one.

According to the United Nations World, the Russian deputy foreign minister Andrei Vishinsky had a little trouble with the telephone during the recent Big Four conference in Paris. Vishinsky, so the story goes, had orders from the Kremlin to bring home two things from the conference: French agreement to a new pact with Russia, and concessions from the Western Powers to match Soviet concessions in Austria. Failing in both missions, he tried to call Stalin to explain.

But Uncle Joe wouldn't answer the phone, even though the badly worried Vishinsky kept the call going day and night.

On the eve of his departure for home, the foreign minister was quoted as "dissatisfied with a diplomatic career and anxious to go back to his old vocation of jurisprudence." Small wonder. He'll be lucky if he doesn't go back to a career in the salt mines.

Rev. Paul Neerman To Take Church Post In Oregon

Rev. Paul C. Neerman, pastor of the Buena Park Congregational church since February, 1945, has accepted a call to the Federated Church of Milton-Freewater, Oregon, and presented his resignation to the local congregation on July 10. His resignation was accepted on July 17 with regrets and sincere wishes for the success and happiness of Rev. and Mrs. Neerman and their son, Paul, in their new location.

CHANGE PARK SWIM SCHEDULE

Participation in the swimming classes for beginners has been so much heavier than anticipated, that a new schedule at Anaheim city park was arranged.

When the children finish the beginner's course, they go on to the more advanced courses in swimming at the high school.

The new schedule at Anaheim city park is as follows: 9 to 9:30, ten years and over; 9:35 to 10:05, 8 and 9 years; 10:10 to 10:40, 7 and 8 years; 11:20 to 11:50, 5 and 6 years; and 11:55 to 12:25, 5 and 6 years.

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

The home folks are serious in their support of the Hoover Commission's recommendations. It is evident from the letters. How is Congress carrying out your wishes?

The Hoover recommendations suggested far-reaching changes and economies in the state department. There are few departments in which changes would be more helpful. This refers to an excess of employees, and also to the thinking at the top level. It didn't need the Hiss case to reveal that. Yet when the state department "reorganization bill," came out of committee it contained only an increase from 6 assistant secretaries, to 10, and some technical changes in responsibility. There were no suggestions for reorganization.

We had a more interesting case last week. The Hoover Commission report said it was difficult to get the right men in top executive jobs, at present salaries. It suggested economies and internal reorganizations which would make it easier to operate the agencies, and offset any necessary salary increase. To which part of the report did the administration pay attention? Give a guess! The bill reported out by the majority party increased the pay of practically every executive in Washington. Read the following examples:

Cabinet officers, who now get $15,000 will get $25,000. The whole kit and kaboodle of assistant secretaries, who now get $10,000, will get $15,000 and the Under Secretary in each department will get $20,000. The chairmen of the Atomic Energy Commission, who has one of the most important jobs in the world today, was raised only from $17,500 to $18,000, and the chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which agency supervises monthly loans totalling over $200,000,000 with a current outstanding balance of $1,432,064,000, has his salary increased only from $15,000 to $16,000, or $4000 less than the Under Secretary of, say, the Department of Commerce.

J. Edgar Hoover needs no build-up in this letter. His reputation is secure with the people. His salary is $14,000 and the original bill contained no increase. Even the committee couldn't take that, but all it did was to increase the salary to $15,000, the same salary, you will observe, of the assistant secretaries in all the departments, whose responsibilities are negligible compared to the responsibilities of the head of the F. B. I. The head of the C. I. A., the new "secret service," which is operating but still to be proven, was raised from $14,000 to $17,500. The bill was a model of inequity. Incidentally the House increased Mr. Hoover to $17,500.

The ranking minority member, Representative Ed Rees of Kansas, made a gallant fight for equalizing, and more moderate increases. Actually none was fully justified until the departments and agencies clean their own houses. It was unfortunate that Mr. Rees received no help from the Republican leadership. I can hardly blame the Democratic members for having to support such a bill; after all, these are Democratic appointees, and the President wanted the raises, but why the Republican leaders would support the bill, or fail to support a demand for a recorded vote on the motion to recommit, will be something for the Party to explain to the folks at home. I gave Mr. Rees all the support I could. I rise to remark again that the sooner Congress gets out of Washington and back home, the better it will be for the country.

MECHANICS LEAD IN VETERAN TRAINING

More veterans are training on-the-job under the G-I Bill and Public Law 16 as automobile mechanics than in any other one occupation, acording to a recent survey made by the Veterans Administration.

This fact was revealed in a study of the principal courses and employment objectives of 2,535,385 veterans enrolled in schools and job training establishments under both laws on December 1, 1948.

Enjoying a picnic in Irvine park last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knauss; Mrs. Ted Priddy and C. J., Mr. and Mrs. "Chuck" Daniel, Claudia and David; Mr. and Mrs. "Chris" Christopher, Gary and little Chris; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Demeris; Mr. and Mrs. "Happy" Kreissler; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell, Joyce, Pamela and Mrs. Helen Clement.

Travelogue
by James C. Duncan

Of all the cities in the world, I don't believe any city intrigues the imagination of people more than Singapore. Everyone believes it to be a dark, dirty city, filled with crime and shady characters slinking down dark allys ready to kill anyone they come upon.

Contrary to people's beliefs, Singapore is a clean, modernistic and romantic city. Situated on a small island at the tip of the Malayan peninsula, Singapore is the drawing room of Lower Asia. People from all over the world meet here and it is a must stop for world travelers.

We arrived three and a half days after leaving Manila. Going ashore Lenny and I got in a taxi and went uptown. We drove down smooth paved streets lined with pleasant, clean appearing buildings.

In the center of the city is the St. Andrews Cathedral. It was here that we got out of the taxi. The Cathedral is a beautiful sight to behold. Surrounded by large trees, its steeple reaches for the sky. I took some pictures of it and then we continued on with our sightseeing.

Walking down the street, we came upon the world famous Raffle's Hotel. We went inside mostly just to say that we had been there. Since the day was stifling hot we went into the bar and had an ice cold beer. The hotel was very cool and we almost hated to leave and go back out into the scorching sun, but we had to in order to see everything before it was time to go back to the ship.

The gardens surrounding the hotel are beautiful. Tall swaying cocoanut and fan palms cast their cool shadows about and bright flowers edge the walks and driveways.

From the hotel we made a round of the amusement parks. There is the Great World, the New World, the Old World, and the Happy World. These parks could vaguely be compared to Coney Island or the Nu-pike in Long Beach. There are a few rides like the Bumper Autos and the Pretzel Ride. The Pretzel Ride is a small car holding two people that takes you into a dark building and as you ride around things light up suddenly and jump at you hoping to startle you. Besides the few rides there are small stands selling novelties and eats. Theaters and cabarets comprise the most entertainment at the parks.

Most of the theaters show American films which are several years old. Unlike our own theaters, they have no continuous shows, but have two shows a day like a stage play. Reservations for seats must be made in advance.

We went next to the Cenotaph Monument which was erected in tribute to the men of Singapore who lost their lives in the war. The day before, the city had observed a Memorial Day and had a ceremony on the steps of the monument then wreaths of bright flowers were placed around the monument.

Lenny and I got out of the taxi to inspect it. It is a large stone thing, with a tower that has a peculiar design on top. The monument appears to be a large inverted "T" resting on a platform. On both sides of the tower, embedded in the cross part of the "T" bronze plaques inscribed with the names of those who died.

After taking pictures of it, we returned to the ship. Lenny and I stayed aboard that evening. We listened to the radio, hearing programs from the States, Australia, and local stations. Perhaps the most entertaining and best liked air show we listened to while overseas was Command Performance. It certainly was wonderful to be able to hear American programs once in a while to escape all that foreign babble that we picked up on the local stations. Just about every fo'cle (room) had a radio. Listening to the radio is about the most important pastime on a ship.

We spent seventeen days in Singapore then we sailed for Port Swettenham which is a night's run up the coast of the Malayan peninsula.

CRAFT CLASS IS POPULAR PASTTIME

The supervised play ground, being conducted at the school each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, is proving very popular with the youngsters. Miss Elizabeth Dickerson, district superintendent, estimated that a total of between 250 and 300 boys and girls were present last week.

Especially popular is the craft class, under the direction of play ground supervisor Visel. Book covers are being made from plywood, and instruction is given in the use of copper for trim. It is possible that use of copper will be made for individual articles later. Work will also be done with raffia.

Men, you'll think so, too, in a shirt we have cleaned and pressed.

CITIES, FARM GROUPS TO ENTER COUNTY FAIR EXHIBITS

Counties, cities, communities and farm organizations are being invited to enter feature exhibits in the coming 1949 Orange County Fair, scheduled for the fairgrounds on former Santa Ana Army Air Base, Aug. 18-21, inclusive.

Cooperation of these groups in the area to enter exhibits and to compete for the many valuable cash prize awards offered is urged by A. J. Schutte of Anaheim, member of fair board and committeeman for non-commercial exhibits, and by Rudy Boysen of Anaheim, honorary county committee chairman.

There is no entry fee for this type of exhibit, according to Reg. G. (Scotty) Hudson of Huntington Beach, department supervisor.

Mrs. Jack Junker and two children, Donnie and Virginia, visited in the home of the latter's grandparents, the Otis Holts at Bakersfield, over the weekend.

Mrs. Bonnie Chambers, 9652 S. Walker, has been temporarily handling Evie's beauty shop while Mrs. Junker has been away visiting.

The Price Seibert's moved from Cypress Manor on Wednesday into the home on DeLong street which was recently completed by Mackay and Seibert.

Andy Kolosky is spending his vacation (?) from the meat department of the M & H market helping to build a new home on La Homa street.

Members and families of the Cypress volunteer fire department will enjoy a fish dinner tonight. Pat Arnold went deep sea fishing on Monday and brought back enough to weigh thirty pounds dressed.

Dr. Basil Miller and Mrs. Miller have been visiting in their son-in-law and daughter's home this week, the Reverend and Mrs. W. D. Howard. The Miller's are from Pasadena.

The Reverend W. D. Howard's uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Henniger, and daughter, Margie, of Denver, Colorado, spent several days with them this week.

A. E. Sanner, district superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, visited in Cypress at the local church on Saturday.

The Richard Hathcock family returned home this week-end from a motor trip which took them over 4000 miles. The Black Hills and Mount Rushmore memorial were highlights of the vacation tour.

The county was repairing Walker street north of the P. E. tracks on Monday. All of the boulevard through Los Alamitos is being worked over on the east side of the thoroughfare.

The names of the winners of the theatre passes in last week's issue were turned around. Ronnie Garrison discovered the errors in Corby's barber shop and and Tom Dyer won the two tickets from "C" Thompson's.

The Ferguson's on Crescent avenue are enjoying a week's vacation at Newport Beach this week.

Kenny Joe and Jean Houghton, brother and sister, returned this week from an extended visit with their aunt, Miss Irene Houghton, in San Diego.

Robert N. Norton, boilerman, first class USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie E. Smith, 5701 Vonnie Lane, is scheduled to arrive at the island of Crete as a crew member aboard the aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea for a five day visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Doerr and Tommy visited in Cypress on Monday. Stan underwent major surgery on July first in Fullerton general hospital. This is one of the first trips away from Anaheim since his recovery.

Floyd E. Davis, of Rapid City, South Dakota, is visiting in the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Sanders, Jr., having arrived Saturday evening by air. This is the first time he has seen his two grandsons. Davis is a civil service employee at the air base in Rapid City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waldeck and their son, Gene, formerly of Venita, Oklahoma, were looking around Cypress last week. Accompanying them was W. E. Jones, from Oklahoma. They expresed a preference for this vicinity as a place in which to live. Waldeck has been employed the past few months in the shipyards at Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sartwell and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davis attended a picnic last week in Orange city park. Present were a number of former residents of Montpelier, North Dakota. A pleasant time was had as old-times "at home" were recalled.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson attended the funeral services for his aunt, the late Mrs. Sara Lantz, in Santa Ana Wednesday.

The Orange County Democratic central committee announces a potluck picnic open to all democrats of Orange county to be held at the Orange city park on Friday evening, July 29, at six p.m. Coffee will be furnished by the committee. Each family is requested to bring a covered dish. Speaker for the evening will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lamblin were glad to return to their home in Cypress last Saturday. It was too hot at two o'clock in the morning in the health resort near Baker, where they were camped, so they packed their gear and drove home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Crume, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Mitchell from Los Alamitos and their families camped out over the week-end at Lake Rondiego. Mrs. Crume acquired a "Mexican sun tan," and John invites a lot of teasing by admitting—"no fish"—not one.

Carl Harvey has gone to Reno, Nevada, to be enrolled in the state university there. His wife remained in Cypress to close "Jill's" baby shop, and take care of business matters relating to the Hancock service station which Harvey operated. She and the baby joined Carl in Reno this week.

Little visitors in the E. L. Robinson home this week have been Ursa and Maxpaula Weston. This is the former's first visit away from home, he having reached the tender age of two and one-half years. Last winter he was chosen "Master Lynwood" in a contest held in his hometown.

The Cypress school auditorium is being used for the fifth year as a meeting place on Sunday afternoons for a summer religious rally. Two more meetings for Bible study are scheduled in this year's series, July 24 and 31.

FOUR-DAY HORSE SHOW PART OF COUNTY FAIR

The four-day horse show, with scheduled evening and afternoon matinee performances, is expected to be one of top entertainment attractions at coming 1949 Orange County Fair, slated for fairgrounds site at the former Santa Ana Army Air Base, Aug. 18-21, inclusive.

Horse Show events in open classes will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, with a matinee afternoon program scheduled for Sunday, the final day of the fair.

Los Alamitos

Mrs. Frank J. Watte, Phone L. B. 95348

The Grace-Johnson Youth Center, so-called in honor of the woman who died late June before her efforts towards erection of such a structure were realized, will be built in the near future through the co-operation of all organizations in the community, according to Mrs. Ethel Fults, acting secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

A special meeting of representatives of all community groups has been called for Thursday night, at which the site for the building is expected to be definitely decided. The building will be used to take care of adult organizational meetings as well for youth activities.

Election of officers in the Los Alamitos American Legion Auxiliary took place Wednesday evening, July 13, at the Community Church. Officers will be installed at County Council Installation, in Huntington Beach, July 26. Those who will preside for the next year, are Mrs. Louisa Aguiar, president; Mrs. Anna Watte, 1st vice; Mrs. Lotti Little, 2nd vice; Mrs. Bonnie Rathbun, secretary; Mrs. Lillian Hilbert, treasurer; Penny Beaman, historian; May Plumer, chaplain; Elsie Oliver, marshal; Rose Marie Watte, sgt.-at-arms; and Dorothy Tischler, committee woman. Junior past president is Mrs. Elsie Oliver, and sr. past president, Emma Robinson.

Following election of new officers, delegates were elected for the forth-coming convention in Long Beach. Mrs. Elsie Oliver, and Mrs. Louisa Aguiar will be unit delegates, with Mrs. Emma Robbinson and Bonnie Rathbuns acting as alternates.

St. Isadore's church will hold its months bingo party Friday evening July 22 in the rectory. As usual, the evening's entertainment is open to the public. Among other things happening around the church of late was the presentation of a sketch for the proposed recreation hall, to begin construction right away. The building will face Katella road behind the church, and will have a modern front. Father Duggan has discussed plans with some of his parishioners for some help in the labor on the building.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bell enjoyed the company of the R. J. Picott family, and Mr. and Mrs. Soza of Wilmington at their home on Sunday.

We've two very proud parents in Los Alamitos this week. A handsome pair of twins were displayed to Joe Hammes at St. Mary's hospital Saturday, a new boy and girl, Bobby Joe and Mary Jo. There is also a very happy home on Reagan avenue, for Louis and Mary DeLeon brought home their new son from Los Cerritos maternity hospital Saturday.

Mrs. J. C. Reynolds also spent a week away from home, with her grandson, James Calvin, in Stockton and her daughter, Mrs. James Foster.

Herb and Marge Proctor, along with son, Billy, Verne Murphy and Earle Gordon and family spent a pleasant week-end in Trabucca canyon, camping out.

A bridal shower was held in DeBruyn's cafe Tuesday evening, July 12, for the new Mrs. Elmer Layton, formerly Margaret Worrall. Among the happy guests extending their congratulations were Mesdames Louis Goeman, Anna and Rose Marie Watte, R. Gustafson, Florence Layton, Martha Fish, Earle Miller, Venice Arnold, Evelyn Clemens, Nina Cummmins, Mae Otte, Penny Beaman, and the daughter of the showeree. After her many beautiful gifts were opened, the guests enjoyed a game of bingo and then were served refreshments. Mrs. Damien DeBruyn was hostess.

At the recent fire department auxiliary meeting, new and old officers again took office. Mrs. Viola Brown was re-elected, Mrs. Shirley Huebert is secretary while Lura Labourdette will handle the treasurer's affairs. Discussion of the tentative date for the auxiliary dance, and plans for the yearly fire department picnic took up the rest of the meeting. The girls set August 20 as the dance date.

Don't forget the Alamo Property Owners' dance July 23, 8:00 to 12:00 with music by Reeves and his Rhythm Boys at Laurel Elementary school.

STATE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO INSPECT COUNTY HIGHWAYS

State highways in Orange County will be inspected next Thursday, July 28, by the California State Chamber of Commerce's Southern Highway Committee, high ranking members of the State Highway Department, and members of the California State Highway Commission.

This announcement was made today by Howard L. Way, chairman of the State Chamber's So. California Highway committee. "Following the tour," Way said, "our Southern California Highway Committee will make State highway project construction recommendations for the 1950-51 (102nd) fiscal year budget."

The Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County and Long Beach Chamber will host members of the tour at a luncheon beginning at 12 p.m. at the Lafayette Hotel, Long Beach. Groups from Orange County and the city of Long Beach will present local State highway project recommendations at the luncheon.

RECORD PERIOD OF DROUGHT NOTED

A new all-time "dry" record of five consecutive subnormal rainfall years was chalked up in Southern California when the 1948-49 Season ended.

Franklin Thomas, outstanding water authority and chairman of the state's Colorado River Board, said this is the first time in 180 years of California rainfall statistics that drought conditions have extended over a five year period.

The previous record was the four year series of 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931.

UNEMPLOYED D.V.'S MAY FILE FOR STATE CLAIM SOON

Unemployed disabled veterans who are currently drawing Servicemen's Readjustment Allowances may file for state disability insurance benefits after July 25, James G. Bryant, Director of the California Department of Employment, announced today.

Bryant explained that the servicemen's readjustment allowances (G. I. unemployment benefits) will expire on July 25, 1949, for all veterans who were discharged from service before July 26, 1947.

CHICKEN FINDS SOLUTION FOR THAT LONELY FEELING

The chicken coop of Mr. and Mrs. George Guenther of Fullerton is inhabited by one, and only one, hen.

Early every morning she flies on top of the coop and crows exactly like a full grown rooster.

After she lays her egg in the nest she cackles just as any other hen does. Whenever she is fed, she clucks busily, calling her phantom chicks!

Apparently she makes up for her loneliness by impersonating a whole flock. All the neighbors testify to her vocal versatility.

Mrs. Sadie Larsen entertained Mrs. Dorothy Hester for the weekend, at her home on Howard street.

Vacationers in San Francisco are Louis and Louisa Aguiar, and the Hilberts. They closed the restaurant and just forgot work for a while.
